Dr Brother:

I am very ſure you cannot with any reason complain of your Sister's not writeing to you, when she has an Opertunity as good as you had by Mr Alden. the only reason you gave ~~was~~ ~~[illegible]~~ for not writeing to me was because you had not receiv'd any from me by him— Now I can give a much better reason— this it is— he never let us know of his going till he had set out & only called at the Door ~~and~~ ſaid he would not stay while I could write one line— I do think you would have obliged me by a letter if he had been so good as to have told you all the truth— so I lay the whole blame upon him—

You was very desireous (not long since) of knowing how I spent my time. ~~'tis very seldom that I am idle entirely, but I cannot say that all I do turn to good account~~— However I have been very busily employd in spinning a peice of Cloth for jackets, expecting you att home this Month we have been in a hurry about it, lest you would have to wait for it— & now you dont intend to afford us the pleasure of seeing you till July I ſuppose

Miſs Rusha Clark & I have lately taken a ride to Norwich together & a very pleasant ride we had of it I'll aſſure you— we drank Tea at Major Rogers's in company with four very agreeable Boston Ladies & ſix Norwich ones— you may be ſure I did not forget your errand to one of the Company she enquired if you were Married I told her no— then her Compliments to you

One of Dr Wolcott's Sons lately call'd to see you I know not which of them it was— I enquired after Miſs Wolcott & with pleasure learnd that her health is some amended— he left his Compliments for you

This must ſuffise for the present for it is saturday, it is hurried over upon the same account I remain Your

Affecionate Sister

Polly Robinson

PS When Bushnell comes home
I hope you will consider it as a good Opertunity & improve it according to your promise In writing a long very long letter to me
Lydia's love to you. Adieu.
